

It's News Here!

Blood Mobile Here Wed., July 21st

The first bank of the 1983 Red Cross Fiscal Year will be from Noon until 6 p.m., next Wednesday, at the American Legion Hall, so, please, you wonderful generous Blood Donors mark your calendars now and arrange to come and give a pint of your precious blood to help save the life of some fellow human.

Crawford County Good Neighbors of Red Cross have established a proud record of giving over the last several years; each year providing as much blood as consumed by all the patients of Mercy Hospital as well as our Citizens who may have had to have blood when in some other state in the union.

Remember, Dial-A-Ride will come and pick you up and take you back home if you come to the Legion Hall next Wednesday to give Blood, at NO-CHARGE! Just phone 348-5409.

Incidentally, the Red Cross Regional Blood Center which serves Crawford County has changed its name, effective July 1st, to the Wolverine Regional Blood Center. The Center services 27 counties in central and northern Michigan, with its main Laboratory at Flint and a Sub-Center with Laboratory facilities at Petoskey, Michigan; and all of these Chapters felt that Wolverine was a more appropriate name for the Region than "Flint" which was adopted when the Center was first organized in 1968.

Don't forget - mark your calendars now - for next Wednesday, July 21st at the American Legion - From Noon until 6 p.m. Let's get 1983 off to a good start with a bigger bank than last July when 125 donors came to give a pint!

Woman Charged with Soliciting at Camp Grayling

A 23-year-old woman was arrested and charged with soliciting at Camp Grayling Friday, July 9. Crawford County Sheriff deputies arrested the white female from Drayton Plains at about 10:30 p.m. following an investigation. Her name is withheld pending arraignment in 83rd District Court.

The Crawford County Sheriff Dept. issued a warning last week to motorcycles and off-road vehicles to stay out of the Hanson Hills Recreational Area. The area is restricted to motor vehicle use and violators will be ticketed.

During the week of July 5 to July 11, the sheriff dept. answered 168 complaints. Ten were public disturbances, seven were traffic complaints and violations, seven were requests to locate persons, six were suspicious situations, five were assists to motorists, five were breaking and enterings, five were malicious destruction reports, and eight ambulance runs were among the others answered.

Tobin, Kucharek Win Alumni Basketball Tournament

Jim Tobin and Mike Kucharek beat the heat and 20 other teams Monday, July 5, to grab the title for the second year in a row at the 2nd Annual Grayling High School Alumni Two-on-Two Basketball Tournament.

Tobin and Kucharek went undefeated in their first five games and then met a tall team from Mancelona in the finals of the double-elimination tournament.

Tobin and Kucharek beat the Mancelona team 11-9 in the first game and then were defeated 7-5 in the second game to set up a winner-take-all third match. Tobin hit two buckets to give his team a commanding 5-2 lead and Kucharek iced the victory with a jumper to win 7-5.

On route to defending their title, Tobin and Kucharek played in the longest game of the tournament, a 22-20 struggle with Bill Roach and Brad Trenary. Games are to seven with a basket worth one point. A team must win by two points.

Roach and Trenary finished tied for third with Dale Papendick and Bruce Burkett behind the Mancelona team. Jim Madill, of Frederic, class of 1954, was the oldest alumni participating. The two-on-two tournament was directed by Grayling High School coaches Butch Hayes and Gerry St. Germain.

$2.2 Million Ammo Dump OK'd

BY Jon Thompson

The U.S. Congress has approved funding for a $2.2 million ammunition storage area at Camp Grayling. Camp Commander Col. Ivan Gwilt said bids will be opened July 21 for construction of 12 igloo buildings on 10 acres at the camp.

Congress delayed approving funds for a $2.56 million new building at Camp Grayling to house supply personnel and store military supplies.

The U.S. Senate had approved the funds for the new facility but Gwilt learned last Friday from the National Guard Bureau in Washington D.C. that the House delayed giving their approval.

Gwilt said the funding is hoped to be approved in the first quarter of the federal 1983 year which begins Oct., 1982. If the funds are approved, he said construction could begin 45 days later depending on the weather. The site is already graded and the architectural plans have been approved. The new building will cover an area of 113,150 sq. ft. on the west side of the camp. It will replace buildings No. 36 and No. 12 but they will still be used for storage. Gwilt said the two current buildings are outdated. The new facility would be the largest building at the camp.

Gwilt said construction of the new ammunition storage building will take about 12 months. He estimated construction would start by the end of August.

The two projects are part of a $50 million wish list for Camp Grayling by military officials. A $920,000 armory was completed earlier this year at the camp.

The camp has also been designated a federal mobilization site. The Army Corps of Engineers currently has $50,000 in its budget to develop plans for improvements at the camp.

The Camp Grayling complex encompasses 121,000 acres and has headquarter buildings, mess halls, barracks, storage facilities, a dispensary, chapel, and other service buildings at the main camp.

The payroll of daily workers at the camp is about $4.5 million while units training at the camp each year have a payroll of $12-15 million.

$6000 GRANT—Bill Boehner, technical manager at Weyerhaeuser (right), and Shelby Wilson, accounting manager at Weyerhaeuser (left) give Crawford County Librarian Rose Duley the good news that the Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation has granted the library $6000. The money will be used to purchase 200 non-fiction books and furnish and remodel a downstairs room, turning it into a study and small meeting room.

Gives $6000 to Library

Weyerhaeuser Does It Again

By Jon Thompson

For the second time in three months, the Grayling community has been the beneficiary of grants from the Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation.

This week, the Crawford County Library received a $6000 grant from the Foundation that will be used to purchase 200 non-fiction books and furnish and remodel a room for study or meetings.

In May, the Crawford AuSable School District received two grants from the Foundation totalling $16,000 to buy micro-computers and video-tape equipment.

Rose Duley, Crawford County Librarian, said $1,500 will be used to buy 200 non-fiction books for students in grades three through six. The rest of the grant will be used for shelving, paneling, carpeting, lighting, and other furnishing and remodeling in a small room in the lower level of the library. The room will be used for study by high school students and it will also serve as a small meeting room for community groups.

Bill Boehner, technical manager at the Grayling Weyerhaeuser plant, said Weyerhaeuser is happy to be able to contribute to the community. He added that the grants are not a one-time shot because a new plant is starting in Grayling.

The Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation is a separate, independent organization that is the major means of philanthropy for Weyerhaeuser, he

Art Weideman Retires

Harry C. "Art" Weideman, well known Grayling real estate broker and general manager of Cornell Realty, retired May 31, 1982 after 12 years with the company. Mr. Weideman was honored at a retirement party recently at Scheys' Country House, attended by friends and co-workers from the Cornell Building.

Born and raised in Detroit, he married the former Monica Brady of Grayling in 1946. A veteran of World War II, Mr. Weideman joined the U.S. Air Force in 1948, serving in Japan as well as Fort Worth, Omaha, and Marquette. He retired from the Air Force as a Lt. Colonel in 1968 and he and his family moved permanently to Grayling in that year.

Joining Cornell Realty in 1970, Art was active in all phases of the real estate business. For six years, he served on the board of directors of the Michigan Association of Realtors.

Schools Reduce Millage Again

The Crawford AuSable School Board reduced the debt retirement millage in the district by .78 mills from last year in action at their monthly meeting held Monday night.

The board set the debt retirement at 2.22 mills for the 1982-83 school year - down from 3 mills in 1981-82. The debt retirement millage is the tax levy required to repay debts on buildings and grounds in Grayling and Frederic.

Coupled with a one mill reduction in a renewal millage approved by voters in June, the millage rate in the district will be 1.78 mills lower for 1982-83 than it was in 1981-82.

Superintendent Bill

Diedrich said the reduction was possible because state equalized values are rising faster than expected when the pay-back schedules were originally figured.

In other school board action, the board started procedures to borrow $1,400,000 against 1982 anticipated taxes. Crawford AuSable, as most school districts have to, must borrow money to begin the school year because tax revenues do not start coming into the district's account until December.

Borrowing the $1.4 million is expected to cost the school $130,000 in interest. It is the same amount borrowed by the school district last year, but for the first time represents no increase in borrowing over the preceding year.

Diedrich said summer tax collection would eliminate the borrowing every year and the $130,000 interest charges. He said pushing for summer tax collection was the number one priority for the district now that the three-year millage has been approved.

Diedrich said summer tax collection could save taxpayers one mill each year.

In other school board action, three teachers were commended for perfect attendance during the 1981-82 school year. Mrs. Marie Akers, Daniel Ullery, and Nancy Lemmen attended

AuSable River Marathon Canoe Race

Preparations are being finalized for the 35th annual AuSable River Marathon Canoe Race which is set to begin on July 23 and finish in Oscoda on Saturday, July 24. The annual spectacle is the longest non-stop canoe race in the United States. It covers the 240 miles of the AuSable River between Grayling and Oscoda.

This race has been termed by many as one of the most grueling events requiring strenuous physical output over an extended period of time. Times have improved since the first Marathon in 1947, with a time of 21 hours and 4 minutes. That time was set by Allan Carr and Delbert Case.

Improvements in equipment, stiffer competition, constant training makes the record breaking times possible. In 1981, both the amateur and professional records were broken. John Baker of Grayling and Ken Brown of St. Clair Shores set a new professional record breaking that record that had been set by Jerry and Jeff Kellogg of 1974. John and Ken paddled the course with a time of 14 hours, 29 minutes and .01 seconds. Forest Haines and Jim Myers of Adrian set a new amateur record with a time of 16 hours and 27 minutes. Forest and Jim have been four time winners and will return to defend their title in '82.

This year the paddlers will compete in one of two divisions: professional or amateur. See AuSable on Page 2

38th Inf. Division Arrives for Training

(Special to the Avalanche)

CAMP GRAYLING—A unique three-week annual training period for the National Guard's 38th Infantry Division got under way this week with more than 12,000 citizen-soldiers expected to take part.

Although most individual units will train for their normal two-week period, the Division's training is spread out over the three-week time frame in order to bring together virtually all of the National Guard division.

This is the first time that the division has trained as an entirety since 1973. The heaviest concentration of troops will occur next week as units move to the field for a special training exercise.

The Guardsmen from Indiana and Michigan have been joined by more than 150 soldiers from the Regular Army who have traveled from Fort Hood, Texas, to share their military experience with the 38th Division.

The Foundation also wants to increase understanding and provide leadership for significant issues at the intersection of industrial and societal interests, initially focusing on forest land use.

Last year the Foundation gave more than $4 million in grants. Quality of life grants at regional plants totalled more than $1,760,000. The Foundation gave grants to eligible non-profit or public organizations in the following fields: Education-41 percent, Social Service & United Way-30 percent, Culture & Arts-9 percent, Health Care-6 percent, Community Improvement-6 percent, Environment-5 percent, and other fields-3 percent.

The Foundation was started in 1948 and has given over $40 million through the years.

divisions. Ribbons will be given to second and third place finishers in each division and in the larger divisions fourth and fifth place finishers will also receive ribbons.

In addition, medals will also be given to winners in three weight divisions this year, 180 to 200 pound, 201 to 220, and over 220.

The first Crawford County male and female racer to cross the finish line will also receive an engraved stein. Special-designed T-shirts will be given to the first 200 finishers.

A mile and a half fun run will be conducted before the 10-K race. Last year, Scott Gaines won the overall competition with a 33:50 time. Bill Dean was the first Crawford County male runner with a 38:53 time and Beverly Stockton was the first female Crawford County runner with a 49:48 time.

All proceeds from the race go to the American Cancer Society. Call Mike Smith at 8-8037 for more information.

To Name Citizen of the Year July 22nd

Citizen of the Year nominations for Grayling and Crawford County should be sent to the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

According to Milltown Festival chairperson Kay Lech, the form of the application will have no bearing on the winner this year. She said in previous years creative writing about the person nominated made a difference. This year, she said, the selection committee will investigate the individual's background and activities.

Mrs. Lech said that a change from original plans calls for the announcement of the Citizen of the Year to be made at a luncheon on July 22.

In other developments for the Milltown Festival, the Arts and Crafts Show will take place on Peninsular St. from Noon, Friday, July 23 through July 24.

The Downtown Merchants Association will sponsor a band on Saturday, July 24 from 12 Noon to 2 p.m. Mrs. Lech said that the parade will take place at 2 p.m. July 25.

Badges supporting the festival are available from various merchants and the C of C. The wording features the slogan "Say Yes to Grayling, Michigan".

Cooking Hints

Are you looking for ways to reduce your time in the kitchen? Most of us are, but you generally have to spend a little time in pre-preparation to save time later. For instance, if you want food to cook while you are away, you must prepare the ingredients either the night before or early in the day.

Some pieces of equipment can help you save your time and personal energy.

Less tender cuts of meat can be simmered all day in a slow cooker or cooked in a pressure saucepan after work. Either way will eliminate several hours of low temperature oven or surface cooking and pot watching.

Even meals require little attention during cooking but, as a rule, they require longer cooking times than surface cooking. However, oven meals can provide you with some extra time to spend with children or simply to relax while the meal takes care of itself.

Cooking times are shorter in microwave ovens than in conventional ovens, but because foods cook faster they require more attention.

amateur. Both divisions will have stiff competition: the paddlers will have to put in many hours of training and they will be competing for prize money and trophies.

On Friday, July 23, the canoeists will arrive with their canoes in the marshalling area by Ray's Canoe Livery by 6:00 p.m. The canoes will then be jugged for correct measurement. A LeMans (a running type start) will begin for the amateur paddlers at 9:00 p.m. and the professionals will begin with a LeMans start at 10:00 p.m.

Registrations will be taken through July 16th. The public is invited to view and cheer the competitors in this tremendous canoe race.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Sanctification and Suffering Romans 8:17b-25

How should a Christian who is fully yielded to the control of the Holy Spirit view pain and suffering in this life? Our future inheritance is tied directly to our suffering here on this earth. The more we suffer with and for Christ while here, the more we shall receive of God in eternity. "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us." Romans 8:17, 18.

Not only are we human beings awaiting our glorification, but God's other creatures await this blessing upon us. "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." V. 19

We human beings deserve our suffering because we wilfully chose sin, while the creatures of God suffer because of our sin, in hope of our restoration. "For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope." Verse 20.

When human beings are glorified by God, then all creation shall be delivered from the curse of man's fall and share in our new liberty. "Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God." Verse 21.

Until Jesus Christ returns to glorify His saints, all of us must suffer together with all of God's creation now under the curse of sin. "For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." Verses 22, 23. Physical suffering is a normal part of our present life on earth.

We should be able to face suffering in this life with a positive attitude. God will reward us in eternity for our suffering. Now we can suffer because of the hope that someday we will have a body which will feel no pain. How much more we will be able to appreciate our glorified bodies when we have suffered more pain down here. "For we are saved by hope; but hope that is seen is not hope; for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?" Verse 24.

Another great reward of suffering in this life besides hope is patience. "And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience." Romans 5:3. This is the same thought in our present context: "But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it." Verse 25.

A sanctified saint has much to gain from suffering both in this life and throughout eternity. May we learn to respect the ministry of suffering. (adv.)

Along with fishing supplies, you'll find a good line of boating, camping and bowhunting supplies for that good old Michigan summertime. Stop in & join us for coffee some morning as local hunting & fishing stories get better by the day. We'll look for you at the Old AuSable in downtown Grayling.

Report on College Week

The annual MAEH college week was held on the Michigan State Campus from June 21st through June 24th with approximately 1200 in attendance. This statewide event is sponsored by the Family Living Education Program of the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service.

The theme this year was "Families Make the Difference". More than 60 classes, a variety of workshops, tours and evening programs were offered. Family Living Education works to improve the quality of living by helping Michigan families learn more about health, housing, nutrition, public affairs, human development and resource management.

This year there were representatives from 80 of the 83 Mich. counties, plus people from Ind., Ill., Wisc., and as far away as Belize, Central America. Ages ranged from the teens to the 80s. A group of 29 women from the Upper Peninsula made a 14 hour trip on a bus in order to attend College Week.

Great interest was shown in a solar home tour. This home is two years old, has an active hot water unit for showers, etc.

College Week enriches people's lives not only through learning, but meeting new friends and finding out that they are like you and that's not bad at all.

There were tours to: the State Capitol, State Museum, Dairy Farm, Communication Arts Bldg. including WKAR Radio and TV studios, University Clinical Center, Geagly Lab (Dept. of Agriculture Consumer protection lab), Beal Botanical Gardens, Kresge Art Center, MSU Chapel.

The keynote address was given on Monday evening at the Auditorium by Karen Kaiser Clarke whose subject "Grow Deep, Not Just Tall" dwelt on what it means to be a person who makes an effort to use his/her full potential in the limited time available.

Hazel Koernke attended from the Lovells Home Extension. Each year College Week participants reach an additional 15,000 families across the state with information they learned in classes.

Alumni News
Ethel Hoyt Riley, Class of 1904 was our oldest known Alumna of G.H.S. She was 96 years young on July 2nd and died on July 3rd, planning on going to the Family Reunion. Her family home had been in Petoskey, with her husband, Glen, Class of 1903, who preceded her in death.

In 1974 she was our Honor Guest at the Alumni Dinner, accompanied by members of her family, escorted by Dennis Theaker, our Roy O. Milnes Award student of the Class of 1974.

She said it was a night she would always remember and told me about it in her letters to me. It has been great knowing her.

We will have an Open House at the Middle School on Saturday, July 24 so all of us can take a walk through the "Halls of the Past"...to so many of us it was our High School.

Watch next week for our Alumni Ad... Clara Sorenson

CAMP GRAYLING—One of the common stories in the military is the one about the food service officer ordering 1,000 pounds of beef roast and receiving 1,000 cans of pickled artichoke hearts. Today, thanks to the electronic ingenuity of Master Sergeant Gary Oliver of the 460th Supply & Service Company, National Guard, of Midland, Michigan, this old story has become history.

About a year ago, Oliver became interested in computers and began working on a practical application with food service. He built his own computer with the capability of handling 64,000 bits of information and storing 300,000 bits.

The pre-planned 14-day menu needed for reserve component summer camp units is placed into the computer, along with the number of personnel to be fed. Almost immediately a printout shows the quantities needed and the unit by unit distribution.

Without any formal training in computers Sergeant Oliver has taken a job that formerly took 7 to 14 people working an entire day and reduced it to a one-man job one hour a day.

Although it took 600 hours to initially program the computer, it was worth the time for Oliver, who has the satisfaction of knowing the job is being done efficiently and correctly.

His support of Ohio's 16th Engineer Brigade during summer camp has been exceptional, according to the Brigade S-4 Officer, Major Joseph Liggett.

Besides working as township supervisor, Keipert has been Chairman of the East-Central Michigan Planning and Development Regions, Chairman of the Roscommon County Planning Commission, President of the Michigan Association of Regions, Board of Directors, Mich. He is also a realtor associate with GRI, Kelley, and Associate in Roscommon and Higgins Lake, a member of the VFW Post No. 4159, Knights of Columbus, Elks Club No. 1981, Michigan Assessors Assoc., Michigan Assoc. of Realtors, and Paul Bunyan Board of Realtors.

Keipert is seeking the seat of the largest senate district in the state. The newly formed 36 district has no incumbent senators within its boundaries, however.

The Hall Tree

By Esther C. Hall

On July 4, forty relatives, from Hazel Park, Ferndale, Troy, Bay City, L'Anse, Mt. Clemens and Grayling, gathered at the Somero's on Fulton St. It was Alice (Shaw) See's (of Romeo) 90th Birthday. Her granddaughter Alice Mae (Shaw) Homsey of Kootenai, Idaho brought her here. The guest of honor's corsage was made of one red rose, one white rose, and a blue bachelor button; which was from Alice Mae, as well as the huge birthday cake - 3 other cakes were brought; gifts and cards, and much food. Jennings brought chicken that Ron barbecued; Whitey roasted hot dogs. It was good that it rained on Saturday eve, so the fireworks were on her birthday. I think everyone enjoyed the day.

Alice Mae came for her mother's (Lennette Shaw) birthday on June 20; and for her class reunion and to do some work at her cabin at Lake Margrethe; a busy girl she is.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall of Russell, New York, came on their yearly visit on June 15. They and the Someros went on a week's fishing trip in the U.P. near where Alan Somero is in college. They all enjoyed it so much that they plan to go again next year. Alan was here over the 4th. Tom Roby and family visited his mother, Tootie Wylie, also.

Grayling Chamber Entertains NCOs

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce hosted its third in a series of receptions at the Carlisle Paddles, Inc. Monday, June 28th for senior NCOs stationed at Camp Grayling for their annual training.

According to Debbie Branch, Executive Director, and Bill Ruddy, Chairman, Military Affairs Committee, "this get together is a good way for senior NCOs from various units in Ohio and Michigan to meet each other and enjoy the hospitality provided by local business people."

Ruddy said that six canoe liveries will be site sections for receptions before the end of summer training period. He stated that affairs like this are always held for officers and that promoting them for NCOs are a good idea since sergeants are in the forefront where training soldiers are concerned.

Carlisle Paddles, Inc. is owned by Mike and Cathy Lovely.

Delay Sought on State Employee Pay Rollback

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

State Personnel Director John Hueni has announced he will ask the state Civil Service Commission to hold off making a decision on a proposed rollback of a 5 percent pay hike for non-union state employees.

Hueni said public hearings should be held before a decision is made. "It's evident that there are additional views and information on the pay increase...and these should be heard before a decision is made," he said.

Peter Ellsworth, general counsel to Governor William G. Milliken, said he has no objections to holding a hearing on the issue, "but the key thing from our standpoint is to get a quick decision."

If the commission decides against rolling back the non-union workers' pay increase and vision care plan, the state will have to begin procedures for laying off workers, Ellsworth said.

The rollback of the increase and vision care plan for the 14,500 non-union workers is expected to save approximately $16.8 million and is part of the $60 million in concessions from state employees the governor has said is necessary to keep the 1982-83 fiscal year budget balanced.

Hueni said, however, that delaying the decision to allow for a hearing should not affect any budgetary decisions as the pay increase does not take effect until October 1.

Ellsworth said if the commission decides against rolling back the pay increase, department heads must have an early decision to allow for an orderly lay-off process.

Top officials of several large departments had indicated they would need a decision by mid-July to assure a smooth lay-off process, Ellsworth noted.

Several employee groups which are not recognized bargaining units and several non-unionized employees have submitted objections to the commission, saying the requested action would violate the constitution.

Garry R. Magruder, a Department of Labor employee, headed a list of 23 employees who threatened a class action suit if their pay increase is cancelled while other employees received their raises.

That would primarily include union members whose bargaining representatives did not agree to concessions.

Edmund W. Phillips, president of the Professional Mediators and Associates Organization, argued the constitution permits civil service pay recommendations to be altered only by the Legislature, which must do so with a two-thirds majority within 60 days of submission of the pay proposals by the governor as part of his budget recommendations.

That view was backed by the Michigan Society of Scientific and Engineering Administrators and the Michigan Association of Governmental Employees.

Other employees urged alternatives be used to provide the needed savings, including continued use of mandatory lay-off days.

Pilot Projects Urged on Environmental Compliance

Governor Milliken is urging federal officials to select Michigan to run a pilot program under which companies would be given the chance to monitor their compliance with federal and state environmental laws.

The initial environmental auditing program would involve facilities with good compliance records and who volunteer to participate.

If accepted, the Department of Natural Resources would work with a citizen advisory group to develop guidelines for an acceptable program, under which companies would be required to show they have sufficient internal procedures to detect and correct problems.

"The Only Sure Things In Life Are Death and Taxes"

Wise old Ben Franklin said that! Of course, there is no need to dwell excessively on the fact of death. But it is wise to prepare for the inevitable. Good preparation means making a will, planning final details and discussing your wishes with your family to assure that your desires will be carried out. One important caution is that you make your decisions and plans with other members of your family and with professional advice. Including your family assures that their sensitivities and wishes are accounted for. Those who live after you will have to live with the decisions you make. To insure everyone's satisfaction, think about what you desire and discuss your plans with your family.

MILLTOWN LANDSCAPE—A mini-Milltown landscape now gracing the front of the Grayling City Building is the result of work by the Grayling Beautification Committee. The creation was designed by former Grayling Country Club manager Tom Brogger as one in keeping with the northwoods theme of the city. It contains dwarf alberta spruce; crimson king maples, crabapple and silver maple. Flowers in the planting include golden sedum, geranium, petunias and pansies.

Individuals heavily involved in the project are Alex Donaldson, Jack Lund, Jerry Morford, Ernie Dawson and a work crew from Camp Shawono.

Radio-Auction a Success

The 1982 Mercy Hospital Auxiliary Radio-Auction, held June 26th was a big success. Marge Oliver, Auxiliary President said, "We want to thank all the area people in cooperating with our auction, and making it a big success."

This year's auction was held at Northern National Bank in Grayling, and was broadcast on Radio Stations WGRY (AM) and WQON (FM). Two-hundred and Twenty-three area merchants and craftsmen donated items for the Radio-Auction, and 40 celebrity items were received, from such notables as Governor Milliken, Phyllis Diller, Tom T. Hall and Bob Hope.

The Radio-Auction was started four years ago, as a means of fulfilling a 50-Thousand Dollar pledge to Mercy Hospital by the Auxiliaries. The pledge was paid off this spring, but the Radio-Auction was continued because of the popularity it has enjoyed in the area. This year, the funds raised will go toward the purchase of equipment in the hospital. Final figures are not yet available, but it is estimated more than 43-Hundred Dollars will be realized from the auction.

Co-op Nursery School News

The response to The Grayling Cooperative Nursery School Round-Up and Registration at the end of the 1981-82 school year was met with an overwhelming response. A great many of Crawford County's pre-schoolers are already registered for the 1982-83 school year. If you are still considering registering your three or four year old for classes beginning in September, please call Janet Gilman, Membership Chairperson, 348-5547, for information and registration.

Once again this summer, The Grayling Co-Op Nursery will have a float in the Annual Milltown Parade on Sunday, July 25. All 1981-82 Co-Op students and newly registered students are encouraged to ride on the float. This is a truly enjoyable experience for the children. For information regarding your child participating in this exciting Milltown activity call Kathy Madsen, 348-5620.

Don't forget to register your child for Nursery School prior to July 25; to insure a place on the float and in school this fall.

Strolling Around Town

By Fay Bovee

One of the newest eye-catchers are the new planters with red geraniums on the south corners of Michigan Avenue and the business loop. The dirt that always overflowed onto the sidewalk has been removed and replaced by cement, thereby making room for the planters. The rest of the downtown planters have also been planted.

The Camp Shawono boys under the guidance of Clem Sajdak was out again this week helping the city with more landscaping. Schuy Gibson's roses were gorgeous and his unusual planter was full of flowers! In the same block Vivan Campbell has finished edging his sidewalk and redoing his lawn. Down Ionia, the Jim Sorensons have bright flowers tucked into a corner, the Nielsens have always kept up their yard and flowers, the Kibbes keep up their yard, the Houghtons have red & white petunias and the Tom Browns have a planter in their yard full of flowers.

I think ye ol' editor has an attractive backyard, but it's hidden behind a redwood fence, but I do enjoy his bride's bright flowers in the front.

John Betts and his crew at the golf course keep the grass outside the fence mowed down. I'm sure people notice this as they arrive in Grayling. And Chicken Charlie, you've mowed some more of the backyard—keep goin'.

Bouquets to all this week who are trying to keep the weeds down and onions to those who don't. Aren't there some unemployed youths out there who could earn some money cutting your weeds? (One of my readers also gave an onion to those who park between the curb and sidewalk.)

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends and fellow Masons for their kindnesses and cards while I was in the hospital.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey,
I cannot find anywhere in the County Board of Commissioner's minutes any motion or vote taken authorizing Mrs. Bonkowski to do the telephone system study on Mr. Moshier's previous weeks Letter to the Editor.

Therefore, I can only assume that she is self appointed or illegally instructed to do so at taxpayers expense. (According to Michigan Law "a member of a board cannot act individually. Their powers, are only that of the Entire Board.")

In last weeks edition the county telephone operator (Mrs. Bonkowski) tried to belittle Mr. Moshier for his efforts to inform the public that there are discrepancies in the financial reportings and costs on the new telephone system. I for one would like to commend Mr. Moshier for his efforts, and would like to see more of the people get involved in the goings on of our local governments. Is this what happens when someone questions (the rulers) where our tax dollars are being spent???

I am sure that the public would like to know, and should be told the figures that Mrs. Bonkowski, and the Board of Commissioners Are Not Mentioning.

I have done a short study of my own on the month of February in the years 1980, 1981, and 1982. Feb. '80 phone bill was $1129.56, the phone bill for Feb. '81 was $1357.33. The increase in the telephone bill of '81 (16.79%) was due to telephone company rate hikes. This was before the installation of the new phone system. The big difference in phone bills shows up after the system was installed. As stated the Feb '81 bill was $1357.33, but the Feb. '82 bill was $2115.56 this is a 64.15% increase.

As I recall Mrs. J. Kitchen said "we would see an almost immediate savings." It doesn't take a genius or a calculator to see these savings are, as Mr. Moshier predicted, non-existent.

I will also probably be attacked for questioning any or the rulers decisions or statements, but I still feel the public should know the Real Truth...This time lets hear the Truth from the Commissioners.

Sincerely,
Earl (Ted) Johnston

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell Hoover

I have spent many, many hours in the Tall Timber, but I am still amazed at the immensity and beauty of those individual trees which collectively make up the stand. When I stand near the base of a big pine, two things come to mind. First, what was it like to work in the shadow of such giants day in and day out with saw and axe and, secondly, I have speculated upon how many such trees were made into masts for ships of the line when sail was master of the seas (surely thousands, perhaps even millions).

Few people realize how the need for this Nation's forest products by England contributed to our revolution. Taxation without representation was only one factor, along with lumber, pitch and turpentine, but most of all masts were another factor. Regular shipments of White Pine to English shipyards began around 1653. A 120-gun ship of the line carried a mainmast 40 inches in diameter, which was 120 feet long, absolutely straight and unblemished from top to bottom. Since masts lost their resiliency to the wind after a few years and were damaged in battle, there was a constant replacement program going on which started in the forests of North America. The English put a clause in the various Colonial Charters reserving to the King all White Pine trees fit for masting the Royal Navy. It was a penal offense to cut trees over 12 inches or more in diameter and all lumber cut from such trees was forfeited to the King.

During the years prior to the outbreak of war, feelings in the Northern Colonies ran high against the enforcement of the laws regarding the King's Pines. The King's officials were tarred and feathered, beaten, and ridden out of town on rails in many instances. For 7 years after 1775, not a single American mast reached England and this had a definite bearing on English Naval weakness during the Revolutionary War. In 1778 the British sailed to meet the French fleet bound for America, but they ran into a terrible storm which demasted almost all of the English fleet due to the old masts not being able to withstand the wind. For the lack of masts, a fleet was lost and thus a part of an Empire.

Mrs. George Griffiths spent from June 16 to 30 with her family at Massapequa on Long Island. She attended the graduation of her grandson, Tom Kennedy, from elementary school and many activities surrounding the high school graduation of her grandson, Chris Pucci from Bayside High School. He graduated with honors and the best diving athlete award from the five boroughs of New York.

Jackie Sabon and son of Mt. Clemens spent a week here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Christian, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sabon.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sabon of Charleston, S. Carolina, were here visiting his parents. Mike was discharged from the Navy on June 14 but his wife still has one year to serve in the Navy so they have returned to S. Carolina.

Herb and Cindy Olson and daughter, Katy, have moved from Karen Woods into the former Laura Olson home on Maple Street.

Guests of Bernard and Donna Pottorff were her parents, Bob and Ruth Phipps of Olney, Illinois, who spent five days over the Fourth. Terri Pottorff returned with her grandparents and her other grandparents, I.V. and Evelyn Pottorff of Dundas, Ill. will bring her home on July 24.

Dear Sir:

Elmwood Cemetery is a total disgrace to the City and Township of Grayling.

The cemetery needs mowing in the worst way, and has needed it for some time. Many of us have in the past paid for perpetual care, but it doesn't mean a thing!

Cannot believe that the City & Township is so hard up that they can't keep the cemetery grass cut.

Another thing, - what happened to all the flags that the Legion put on Veterans' graves, which seem to have disappeared!

Whatever a public letter can do to correct this condition, I don't know, - but here's hoping!!

Respectfully,

NICE CATCH—These two good brown trout were taken recently from the Manistee River by avid trout fisherman Don Geiss.

LOOK ALIKE—Many persons have remarked over the years about the similarity in appearance between one-time conservation officer and angler Rube Babbitt and reporter Don Geiss. To permit individuals to judge for themselves, Geiss recently posed for this photo in front of the mural of Babbitt at the Old AuSable Sporting Goods.

In the July 8th issue of the Avalanche, it was reported a Heart Lake couple, James and Diane Wilhelm, won approval to transfer their property to the Gaylord Community School District from the Crawford AuSable School District. The couple's property is not located at Heart Lake but is a mile and a half away, south and east of Waters. The Avalanche apologizes for any inconvenience the mistake might have caused.

A discussion was held on several requests received to brine roads not under Crawford County Road Commission jurisdiction. The Board instructed Engineer-Manager Keir to inform the requesting parties that we could not brine other areas because of present dry weather conditions and our shortage of distributing equipment.

The Board signed the plan for F.A.S. projects on County Road 612 and North Down River Road. It was decided to change the date of the next regular meeting to May 20, 1982 due to a conflict of meeting dates. A notice is to be posted for the public.

A discussion was held on proposed improvements for Glenn Road and Orbit Road. Application had been earlier received from Grayling Township to include this project on the 1982 Construction Program. Therefore, a motion was made by Commissioner Parker, seconded by Commissioner Kraus that the improvements be considered necessary subject to a hearing to be conducted May 26, 1982 at 7:00 p.m. in the Council Room, Grayling City Hall. All voted in favor, motion adopted.

Yet they tell me that among the men who build our skyscrapers "it's all in a day's work." Marvelous how humanity rises to every challenge! Someone is ready to answer every call!

God, who created us, is the source of man's courage and strength. Each of us faces challenges that require all the boldness and resourcefulness He has given.

When I worship and when I pray each day I don't ask God for the ability to do another man's job. I ask Him for whatever it takes to fulfill my own responsibilities. And I bring to Him earnestly the needs of my family—and of all men everywhere.

The special training exercise next week is designed to simulate the types of challenges and problems that the Guardsmen would encounter in the event of war. Their performance will be evaluated by teams of observers from the Regular Army.

The 38th Division, generally considered to be one of the nation's top-ranked National Guard organizations, is taking advantage of experiences gained last year in Germany, when many of its key officers were involved in training exercises with the Regular Army.

"The 38th Division because of its high standing has been given a number of opportunities for special training activities, such as that conducted in Germany last year," said Major General John J. Dillon, its commander. "This annual training, which represents the largest peacetime maneuvers of the 38th since the pre-World War II training conducted in 1941, enables us to refine the lessons we learned in Germany and to take advantage of the special knowledge possessed by soldiers of the 1st Cavalry Division who are sharing our training with us."

RSVP Reports

by Sherry Haag Director

I received some information last week I've been asked to pass on to all RSVP'ers and senior citizens in general. The information concerns the Peace Corp. The Peace Corp was created in 1961. Since then over 85,000 Americans have given selflessly of their time and talents to assist developing countries. However, despite the many successes of our American Volunteers, much still remains to be accomplished if developing countries are to reach their goal of self-sufficiency. One particular development that argues well for continued success of the Peace Corp, is the increasing number of Older Americans who are volunteering for service. Many Older Americans have been extremely effective in their work, not only because they have a wealth of experience and skills to share but also because their age and wisdom are so well respected in the Host countries. If you have the commitment to help, the desire to serve, the flexibility to adapt, the openness to learn and the strength to persevere, the Peace Corp offers you a unique opportunity. For two years you can share our skills-yourself-with the people of another culture that needs your experience. In return you receive first hand knowledge about other places and peoples. A chance to travel. As much responsibility as you can handle. An And plenty of independence. Peace Corp provides -tax free-all essential expenses and arrangements for travel, training & medical care. And you get a living allowance every month you serve including your training period.

If this sounds like something you might be interested in, please stop by the RSVP Office at 308 Lawndale or call the office 348-4341 or 348-8322, for more information.

July 23-24-25 is the Grayling Milltown Festival. RSVP is sponsoring a Box Social. The event will be held Saturday, July 24 at 12:00 noon on the lawn of the Crawford County Historical Society Museum.

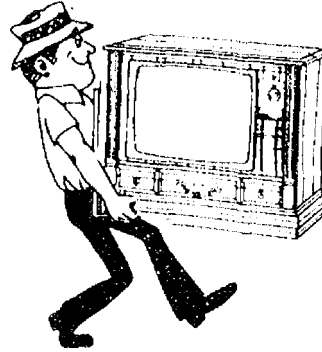

Col. Larry Glynn of the Grayling Auction House has volunteered his services to be our auctioneer.

This even is open to all residents of Grayling, young and old alike. All monies raised will be used by RSVP to provide the matching local contribution we are required by ACTION to raise.

Lets make this a big event and have lots of fun at the same time. There will also be demonstrations going on throughout the day of "old time" skills. RSVP will also have a table at the Arts and Crafts Fair going on downtown. Please stop by and take a look at what we have to offer.

For more information call Sherry Haag at 348-4341 or 348-8322.
